Editor's Comments

Finally, good news, we received a final approval from the City of Stockton and the Boating and Waterways unit will be moving into the Warehouse Building on Monday April 19.

Be sure to come out for Opening Day, April 24th. And Bakers, who have some nice prizes for the winners of the Baking Contest. All entries will be sold to the highest bidder and the pro-

LONG TIME MEMBER- LINDA DRIVER

Linda has been a member of the club since 1993 or 94. She started out windsurfing in 1982 and has loved sailing ever since. She owns a Columbia Challenger on A dock named Times Roman.

You may remember that she was Phil Hendrix's sweetheart for 30 years until his passing in 2017. Linda and her little dog Charlie still miss him a lot.

Linda grew up in Stockton and attended Victory School, Daniel Webster Junior High and AA Stagg High School. She received her AA from Delta College and her BA and Masters from the University of the Pacific.

She worked as an engineering tech for about 12 years. For 20 years she was a graphics consultant. She then went on to become a teacher which she loved and still substitutes when needed.

Linda is a University of California Cooperative Extension Master Gardener since 2011, and a UCCE Master Food Preserver since 2013. Both UCCE programs focus on educating the public, one about gardening the other safe food preservation. She is also a founding member and serves as the Treasurer/Grants Coordinator for the AA Stagg Alumni Association.

Linda has one daughter who sails with her on occasion. Other interests include taking care of her home garden, ceramics and crocheting. She is a great cook and comes to many of the Friday night dinners and other social events at the Club.

INTRODUCING NEW MEMBER- GRANT HAMILTON

We are glad to welcome Grant and his fiancé Angela to the Club. He joined around September of 2020. His boat, Namu II, is berthed on D dock. He is deep into the rejuvenation of the 1979 Cal Corinthian 39. Grant has always been passionate about sailing since he was about 20 years old. But the last 10 years were difficult to participate. So he is excited to tap into the experiences and the insights of other members as he plans his future endeavors. There is a great article about him in the latest issue of Latitude 38.

Grant grew up in Scotland but has lived in many countries over the years. He now lives in Lodi and has been a helicopter pilot for the last 20 years. He is also a professional brewer of beer. He is also tackling the art of sewing which came about because of sailing. He has two older children who are excited about the prospect of learning to sail.

When asked why does he sail, here is his beautiful response. You can stand outside and be in awe of the environment and when you raise the sail the connection you have is direct and responsive. Feeling 20,000 pounds being propelled through the water is for me the ultimate manifestation of mother nature. How lucky we are.

Recipe of the Month

Chicken Enchiladas

3 cups shredded chicken

2 cups shredded Mexican blend cheese

½ cup sour cream

4.5 oz green chiles

Cilantro (I use 3-4 green onions)

Mix these ingredients together

Heat oven to 375 degrees

8- eight inch soft tortillas (I use flour)

2 cans Hatch green enchilada sauce

Grease 13x9 baking dish. Put several Tbsp. of Hatch Green enchilada sauce over bottom of the pan. Fill tortillas with about 1/3 cup chicken mix, roll and place seam side down in dish. Cover with additional sauce and bake. Can sprinkle additional cheese on top in last 10 minutes of baking.

Bake 20-30 minutes
